Matador: The Co-operative Farming Tradition

George Melnyk University of Saskatchewan

Co-ops/Farmers/New Ag - AgEcon Search Matador: The Co-operative Farming Tradition. Centre for the Study of Co-operatives, University of Saskatchewan, 1992 - Agriculture, Cooperative - 18 pages. Matador - Centre for the Study of Co-operatives Group Farming Bibliography - University of North Dakota Agricultural cooperatives in the development process: Perspectives. read more - Matador Farming Pool and the Co-operative Farm Movement 79%. In contrast, the co-op farms were intentional co-operative communities, which the majority of residents