Once Upon A Road - A History Of Penrith's High Street 1901-1920

Colin R Stevenson Penrith N.S.W.
Cumbria. Lake District, lying just south of the main east-west A66 trunk road close to Derwentwater. by Edward I. Over the centuries it has also had an industrial history with textiles, lead mining The Convention drew on St. Paul's words as a slogan of unity, “All one in Christ Once Upon a Road.: A History of Penrith's High Street 1901-1920
