John Corigliano Erik Nielsen

When Corigliano examined the script for The Red Violin, he realized that “a Later, while the movie was being filmed, he composed the seven-minute Red Violin Chaconne. A number of symphony orchestras around the U.S. were is paired with another Corigliano work, the Sonata for Violin and Piano.