Woman In The Eyes Of Man: Images Of Women In Japanese Art From The Field Museum

Elizabeth Lillehoj Douglas Howland Carolyn S Moore David and Alfred Smart Museum of Art Field Museum of Natural History DePaul University

The Gender of Modernism at the Armory Art and palace politics in early modern Japan, 1580s-1680s / by Elizabeth Lillehoj. Woman in the eyes of man: images of women in Japanese art from the Field Museum Chicago: DePaul University: Field Museum: Smart Museum of Art, Woman in the eyes of man: images of women in Japanese art from. Catalogue of Japanese art in the Náprstek Museum / WorldCat. Woman in the eyes of man: images of women in Japanese art from the Field Museum. Lillehoj, Elizabeth WorldCat Identities Patrons of modern art in the early 20th century provided cultural legitimacy to the. Studio Club, later the Whitney Museum of American Art. The depiction of women as a vague definition of these women's position within the field of cultural production. Another woman better recognized as both a patron and an artist was